Burman University Financial Statements April 30, 2024

To the Board of Trustees of Burman University:

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Burman University (the "University"), which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at April 30, 2024, and the consolidated statements of operations, changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the University as at April 30, 2024, and the results of its consolidated operations and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the University in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the University's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the University or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the University's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the University's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the University's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the University to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

April 30, 2024

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Burman University [the "University"] was incorporated by a special Act of the Province of Alberta and is a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada ["SDACC"]. The University was established to provide the opportunity for Christian-based education to Seventh-day Adventists and others. The University is exempt from income taxes under certain provisions of the Income Tax Act [Canada].

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements of the University have been prepared on an accrual basis. The significant accounting policies of the University are in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations. The significant accounting policies are summarized below:

Basis of presentation - fund accounting

The accounts are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting to ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the University. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purpose. These funds are comprised of the following:

- [i] Operating funds: Include current assets, liabilities, and transactions from restricted and unrestricted educational and rental building resources of an operating nature and include Burman University ["Burman"], rental buildings activity ["Rentals"], research [Research], and Burman University Foundation ["Foundation"] a USA foundation (see note 15).
- [ii] Loans fund: Consists of contributions restricted for the purpose of loans to students.
- [iii] Endowment fund: Consists of assets that are subject to external restrictions which require that the principal be held in perpetuity, be invested, and only the income from such investments be used. The principal of endowment gifts are reported as permanently restricted net assets. Contributions received for endowment principal are recorded as direct additions to permanently restricted net assets.
- [iv] Capital fund [including the Heritage fund]: Consists of resources that were donor restricted and used for the acquisition of capital assets [held as deferred capital contributions] or committee allocated [held as internally restricted net assets] for future capital acquisitions. Internally restricted operating funds can be returned to the operating funds by action of the committee. The internally restricted balance includes funds transferred for future capital acquisitions, proceeds from sale of capital assets, and unrestricted capital fund investment earnings. The capital fund also consists of the cost of capital assets acquired or contributed, respective accumulated depreciation, any respective debt, and the unamortized portion of deferred capital contributions.
- [v] Agency fund: Represents funds held by the University for student associations and clubs.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant areas requiring the use of estimates include: allowance for doubtful accounts, estimated useful lives of capital assets and deferred capital contributions, donated art held for sale and employee future benefits. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include highly liquid assets that are readily convertible to cash and have maturity dates of less than three months from the date of acquisition.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Capital assets

Capital assets are recorded at cost when purchased or at fair market value at the date of gift. Amortization is provided over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets on a straight-line basis as follows:

Land improvements5 - 40 yearsBuildings and building improvements30 - 40 yearsPipe organ100 yearsEquipment, vehicles and library5 - 30 years

Uses of operating funds for capital acquisitions and debt service payments are accounted for as transfers to the capital fund. Both principal and interest payments made to retire capital fund debt are recorded in the capital fund.

Investments

Investments subject to significant influence are accounted for using the cost method. Accordingly, investments subject to significant influence are recorded at original cost unless there has been impairment in value, in which case the investment has been written down to its fair value. Income is recognized when received or receivable. Gains or losses from the sale of investments recorded at cost are calculated based on the average carrying value of the investment.

Investments not subject to significant influence are initially recorded at their acquisition cost. Investments in publicly-traded securities and debt instruments, traded in an active market for which fair value is readily available, are subsequently adjusted to fair value at year end. The corresponding unrealized gain or loss is recognized in the statement of operations, except for restricted portions. Based on the fund the restricted portions belong to they are either recognized as a change to the net assets of the endowment fund, or as a liability under deferred contributions of the operating funds.

The investment in donated art held for sale has been written off.

Impairment of long-lived assets

The University reviews capital assets for impairment whenever events or circumstances arise that indicate that the asset no longer has any long-term service potential. A write-down is recorded to reduce the carrying amount of the asset to its residual value when there is no longer any service potential. Write-downs are not reversed if there is a subsequent change in circumstances.

Financial instruments

The University recognizes its financial instruments when the University becomes party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument.

Arm's length financial instruments

Financial instruments originated/acquired or issued/assumed in an arm's length transaction ("arm's length financial instruments") are initially recorded at their fair value.

At initial recognition, the University may irrevocably elect to subsequently measure any arm's length financial instrument at fair value. The University has not made such an election during the year.

All financial assets and liabilities issued/assumed in an arm's length transaction are subsequently measured at amortized cost.

Transaction costs and financing fees directly attributable to the origination, acquisition, issuance or assumption of financial instruments subsequently measured at fair value are immediately recognized in net earnings. Conversely, transaction costs and financing fees are added to the carrying amount for those financial instruments subsequently measured at cost or amortized cost.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Related party financial instruments

The University initially measures the following financial instruments originated/acquired or issued/assumed in a related party transaction ("related party financial instruments") at fair value:

- Investments in equity instruments quoted in an active market
- Debt instruments quoted in an active market
- Debt instruments when the inputs significant to the determination of its fair value are observable (directly or indirectly)
- Derivative contracts.

All other related party financial instruments are measured at cost on initial recognition. When the financial instrument has repayment terms, cost is determined using the undiscounted cash flows, excluding interest, dividend, variable and contingent payments, less any impairment losses previously recognized by the transferor. When the financial instrument does not have repayment terms, but the consideration transferred has repayment terms, cost is determined based on the repayment terms of the consideration transferred. When the financial instrument and the consideration transferred both do not have repayment terms, the cost is equal to the carrying or exchange amount of the consideration transferred or received (refer to Note 15).

At initial recognition, the University may elect to subsequently measure related party debt instruments that are quoted in active market, or that have observable inputs significant to the determination of fair value, at fair value.

The University has not made such an election during the year, thus all such related party debt instruments are subsequently measured at amortized cost.

Transaction costs and financing fees directly attributable to the origination, acquisition, issuance or assumption of related party financial instruments are immediately recognized in net earnings.

Financial asset impairment

The University assesses impairment of all its financial assets measured at cost or amortized cost. The University groups assets for impairment testing when available information is not sufficient to permit identification of each individually impaired financial asset in the group. Management considers whether the issuer is having significant financial difficulty; whether there has been a breach in contract, such as a default or delinquency in interest or principal payments in determining whether objective evidence of impairment exists. When there is an indication of impairment, the University determines whether it has resulted in a significant adverse change in the expected timing or amount of future cash flows during the year.

With the exception of related party debt instruments and related party equity instruments initially measured at cost, the University reduces the carrying amount of any impaired financial assets to the highest of: the present value of cash flows expected to be generated by holding the assets; the amount that could be realized by selling the assets at the balance sheet date; and the amount expected to be realized by exercising any rights to collateral held against those assets.

For related party debt instruments initially measured at cost, the University reduces the carrying amount of the asset (or group of assets), to the highest of: the undiscounted cash flows expected to be generated by holding the asset, or group of similar assets, excluding the interest and dividend payments of the instrument; the present value of cash flows expected to be generated by holding the assets; the amount that could be realized by selling the assets at the balance sheet date; and the amount expected to be realized by exercising any rights to collateral held against those assets.

For related party equity instruments initially measured at cost, the University reduces the carrying amount of the asset (or group of assets), to the amount that could be realized by selling the asset(s) at the balance sheet date.

Any impairment, which is not considered temporary, is included in current year excess (deficiency) of revenue over expenses.

The University reverses impairment losses on financial assets when there is a decrease in impairment and the decrease can be objectively related to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognized. The amount of the reversal is recognized in excess (deficiency) of revenue over expenses in the year the reversal occurs.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Revenue recognition

The University follows the deferral method of accounting for donations, Alberta and federal government grants and Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada appropriations. Gifts of cash and other assets are reported as deferred contributions if they are received with donor stipulations that limit use of the donated assets. When the related expenses are incurred or a stipulated time restriction expires, restricted assets are recognized as income and reported in the statement of operations. Gifts of cash or other assets that must be used to acquire capital assets are also reported as deferred contributions. Deferred contributions that have been spent to acquire capital assets are transferred to deferred capital contributions, and are amortized and recognized as revenue on the same basis as the amortization expense of the related capital assets. Endowment contributions are recognized as direct increases in permanently restricted net assets in the period in which they are recorded.

The fair value of donated depreciable capital assets, whether or not restricted, is recorded as deferred capital contributions and amortized and recognized as revenue on the same basis as amortization expense is recognized for the related capital assets. The fair value of donated land is recognized as an increase to net assets invested in capital assets at the time of the gift.

Tuition and fees and resale and ancillary revenue, including rentals, are recognized as revenue in the period when services are provided. Tuition fees received in advance of the next fiscal period are recorded as deferred revenue and recognized over the period of instruction.

Interest and other revenue is recognized in the period earned. Income from investments, loans, and other instruments is accounted for in the fund owning the assets, except for the endowment fund. Only the portion of interest and other revenue required by donor restriction is added to endowment fund principal as a direct addition to net assets. Where there is no requirement to add the income to the endowment fund principal, interest and other revenue is accounted for within the operating funds. Interest and other revenue from restricted grants, donations or endowment contributions are recognized as deferred contributions when the terms for use create a liability, and are recognized as revenue when the terms of the grant, donation or endowment contribution are met.

The University actively fundraises and unrestricted contributions are recorded when received. Pledges are not recorded because historical information does not reasonably support collection.

Insurance proceeds are recognized as revenue in the period of loss and are reported under capital activity on the Statement of Operations.

Foreign currency translation

Monetary items denominated in a foreign currency are translated into Canadian dollars at the exchange rate in effect at the date of the Statement of Financial Position. Non-monetary items are translated into Canadian dollars at the exchange rate in effect on the date of the transaction. Revenues and expenses denominated in a foreign currency are translated into Canadian dollars at the exchange rate in effect on the date of the transactions. Any foreign exchange gain or loss is included in the determination of excess of revenue over expenses for the year.

Volunteer services and contributed materials

The work of the University is dependent on the volunteer services of many individuals and others. The nature and amount of volunteer services are not reflected in these financial statements because of the difficulty of determining their fair value. Contributed materials are recorded in these financial statements only when the fair value can be reasonably estimated, and when the materials are used in the normal course of operations and would otherwise have been purchased.

Employee future benefits

Defined contribution plan accounting is applied to a multi-employer, defined benefit, final average earnings non-contributory pension plan. Accordingly, contributions are expensed as due.

Retirement allowances are accrued and expensed for any eligible employee.

The guaranteed investment certificates earn interest at 3.40% to 5.95% [2023 - 3.15% to 4.83%] and mature between May 2024 and October 2024. The guaranteed investment certificates bear interest at fixed rates and thus are exposed to interest rate price risk.

6. DUE FROM (TO) OTHER FUNDS

The amounts shown as due from or due to other funds represent the transactions in a specific fund for which the Burman fund holds and transacts the cash. Amounts due to the loans fund of $144,853 [2023 - $129,195] and the endowment fund of $180,507 [2023 - $53,269] bear interest on the same basis as the inter-fund loan [see Note 14], being a blend of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada's revolving fund deposit rate and loan rate, 2.50% and 4.00%, respectively, at year end [2023 - 1.75% and 3.25%]. Otherwise, interfund balances are non-interest bearing and have no specified settlement terms.

The long-term investments in mutual fund equities are traded in the market and thus exposed to market price rate risk.

Included in the long-term GICs are GICs with a maturity date of less than one year totaling $400,000 [2023 - $387,185] in the capital fund and $1,025,487 [2023 - $0] in the endowment fund.

The GICs bear interest at 2.75% to 5.25% [2023 - 2.75% to 3.30%] and mature between May 2024 and July 2024. The GICs bear interest at fixed rates and thus are exposed to interest rate price risk. $350,000 of these GICs have been assigned to the University's "Payment Anytime" agreement in the event that funds required to cover the payroll are not on deposit.

Cash on deposit has been set aside by the board for future investment in equities to fund the activities of the capital fund (including the Heritage fund). As these funds are not for current operations and are intended to be invested in the long term, they have been presented as long term on the Statement of Financial Position. Investments held in the capital fund are for the Heritage fund and are reported as long term because of the University's intent to reinvest maturing investments over the long term.

Investments held in the Endowment fund are reported as long-term because of the University's requirement to reinvest maturing investments over the long term.

16. PENSION PLANS

The University is a participating employer in the following non-contributory, defined benefit pension plans:

- 1) Seventh-day Adventist Church Retirement Plan for Canadian Employees [the "Registered Plan"] is registered with the Financial Services Regulatory Authority of Ontario and with the Canada Revenue Agency. The Registered Plan covers substantially all employees who have completed two years of service and provides a defined benefit pension based on a benefit rate factor, pension factor, and credited service. Under the terms of the Registered Plan, each participating employer's required contribution consists of two parts; a pro-rated "amortization" portion of the unfunded past service cost; and a "normal cost" amount for current service cost of active employees.
- 2) Supplemental pension and other post-retirement benefits are provided by The Seventh-day Adventist Church Retirement Plan for Canadian Employees [the "Supplemental Plan"]. These benefits include post-retirement healthcare, non-registered pension, funeral allowance and retirement allowance for all employees who meet the specified requirements. The Supplemental Plan is not a registered plan. The Supplemental Plan is unfunded; it receives contributions from participating employers in amounts sufficient only to cover the benefits actually paid each year.

The Registered Plan and Supplemental Plan are considered multi-employer plans for accounting purposes only. It is not reasonably possible to determine the funded position by each participating employer since plan assets are held in aggregate only. As a result, the University is required to account for its participation as if the plans were defined contribution plans. Required contributions during the year are included in pension benefits expense in the statement of operations.

Based on the latest full valuation of the Registered Plan as a whole, as at January 1, 2023, and rolled forward to December 31, 2023, the actuarially computed value of accumulated plan benefits was estimated to be $171,319,000 [2023 - $158,183,000], and the market value of net assets was estimated to be $148,541,000 [2023 - $138,428,000] for the Registered Plan as a whole, resulting in a deficit of $22,778,000 [2023 - deficit of $19,755,000]. As a participating employer, the University is required to make contributions to the Registered Plan in amounts which are subject to change as determined by the Registered Plan's governing board.

Based on the latest valuation of the Supplemental Plan, as at January 1, 2023, for non-registered pensions and as at January 1, 2022, for other post-retirement benefits, both rolled forward to December 31, 2023, the actuarially computed value of accumulated plan benefits was estimated to be $54,534,000 [2023 - $50,448,000] and the market value of net assets was estimated to be $0 [2023 - $0] for the Supplemental Plan as a whole, resulting in a deficit of $54,534,000 [2023 - $50,448,000].

The required contributions, and expense recorded, by the University are as follows:

19. RECOMMENDED WORKING CAPITAL AND LIQUIDITY

The following is a summary of working capital and liquidity as recommended and defined by the Working Policy of the North American Division of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

Canadian generally accepted accounting principles allow the use of current assets only in the calculation of working capital; however, the University invests operating funds in non-current investments for a better rate of return. Table A shows working capital and liquidity according to Canadian generally accepted accounting principles and Working Policy of the North American Division of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. Table B shows the Organization's operating fund's working capital combined with noncurrent operating fund investments.
