PIONEERS AND INNOVATORS: Giving Their Best

HONOUR CLASSES

Welcome from your Alumni President

Adam Deibert, President

As the saying goes, the more things change, the more they stay the same. This year marks the 112th anniversary of the founding of what we know today as Parkview Adventist Academy and Burman University. I can only imagine what Charles and Leona Burman would think of what has become of their vision for a place where people could learn to think with discernment, to believe with insight and commitment, and to act with confidence, compassion, and competence. There have been a lot of changes since those pioneers laid the foundations for such a place; in fact, I'm sure for some of you there have been a lot of changes since the last time you were here (even if it was just last year!). That's because the very nature of the pioneer spirit is a constant striving to break new ground, to reach new heights, to make the world a better place. It's a spirit the Burmans instilled in those first teachers and students 112 years ago, and it's the same spirit that has inspired and continues to inspire the teachers and students throughout their time on the hilltop and beyond. This year we pay tribute to our PAA and Burman alumni who have been pioneers and innovators in the world, who have taken what they gained during their time here and are giving their best to the glory of God and in service to others. For all the changes we may find as we come home to the hilltop, that spirit is the one thing that has stayed the same.

*Don F. Neufeld Medallion of Excellence
Malcolm Graham*

Malcolm Graham was born in Armstrong B.C. In his youth on the farm, Malcolm learned to work hard. He applied this ethic to his studies through grade school and academy, graduating Valedictorian of his Okanagan Academy class.

Enrolled in Canadian Union College (CUC), he was active in student life and athletics and displayed leadership as the president of the first Canadian Temperance Society Chapter. He also met Lorine Baynham at CUC and married her in 1952. He graduated with a degree in Theology in 1954 and became a father when Loritha was born the same year.

In 1961 the family moved to California where he studied at Pacific Union College (PUC). In 1961 they welcomed twins Devon and Dari to the family. In 1962 Malcolm earned his MA degree in Education Administration from PUC and returned to BC where he taught and was Principal at what is now Fraser Valley Adventist Academy for a year before moving on to Okanagan Academy. In 1965 the Grahams accepted a call to go to Rwanda, fulfilling a life-long dream of Malcolm's to serve in the mission field. He served as Director at Gitwe College for six years.

In the fall of 1972, he accepted the call to serve as MV, Educational and Temperance Secretary for the Alberta Conference. During this time, he organized pathfinder camporees, week-long summer youth hikes in the Rockies and especially rewarding, opened the doors of Bowden camp in 1973. He also partnered with the Christian Record Braille Foundation to launch the first camp for the visually impaired the same year the camp opened.

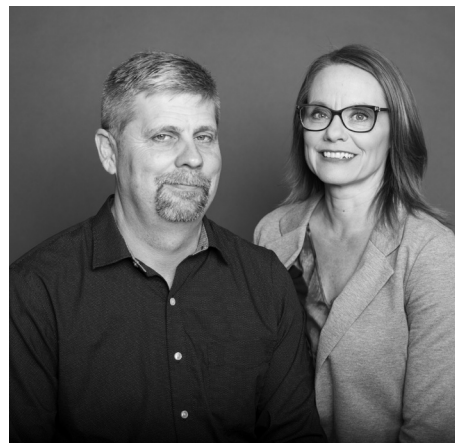

In 1976, Malcolm and family moved to Ontario when he served as Associate Director of Education and later, Director of Education for the Canadian Union Conference. Malcolm served as President of Canadian Union College from 1982-1987. While at CUC he accomplished many goals and was able to leave the college a better place than when he arrived.

In retirement, he continued to be active in educational work serving at various interim positions and then focused on founding Shuswap Adventist School in Salmon Arm, B.C. He also worked with ADRA Rwanda and with ADRA and United Nation High Commission for Refugees in Guinea, West Africa during the Liberian refugee crisis. Life is not without sorrow, however, and in 2000 he suffered the loss of Lorine after almost 48 years of marriage.

In 2001 he married Elizabeth (Hill) Munroe and in 2003-2004 he returned to Rwanda with Betty by his side, serving as interim ADRA Rwanda director. He and Betty now live in Salmon Arm, B.C.

Malcolm Graham values standing for the truth though the heavens fall and believes that in place of being popular; it is more important to be pure in heart "for they shall see God." His life is a reflection of Biblical principles and the love of God.

*Burman Alumni of the Year
Scott and Teresa Tataryn*

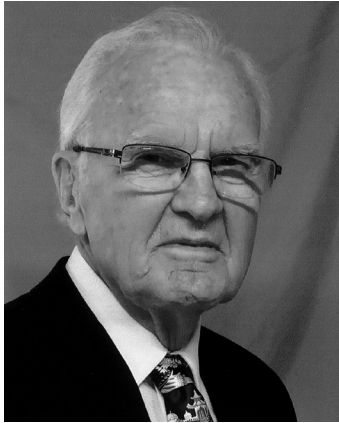

Scott and Teresa Tataryn are both graduates of 1994 (Canadian Union College), Teresa with a degree in Education and Scott with a degree in Psychology. Their first year after graduation meant a long-distance relationship as Teresa taught at Pine Valley Adventist Academy in Grand Prairie, while Scott remained in central Alberta and began working at the Michener Centre. Teresa then returned to Lacombe to teach at College Heights Adventist Junior Academy for three years. It was during this time that Scott became involved in foster parenting for high-needs, high-risk children, beginning with the first child in 1997. When they married in 1998, the Tataryns continued their foster parenting experience, and since then have raised six children to adulthood, along with numerous other short-term foster placements. Their six long-term children have remained a part of their family, which also includes their own two sons, Kyin and Kage. Though they've taken a break from long-term fostering to raise their boys, Scott and Teresa continue to serve in support of respite needs as they can.

Both Teresa and Scott are active in their local church, in central Alberta, and beyond. Scott serves on the board of directors for Foothills Livestock Co-op, which provides financial support to farmers and ranchers throughout western Canada. Teresa's advocacy for inclusive education led her to Third Academy, where for several years she was teacher and principal of students across a spectrum of learning needs. Scott and Teresa are also strong supporters of Adventist education. Their children attend a local Adventist school, and Teresa shares her passion for inclusive education with students at Burman University through practicum placements at Gateway Christian Academy in Red Deer, where she serves as principal. Scott and Teresa have been part of numerous Neighbours projects sponsored by A Better World, and have done overseas mission work with A Better World and Edu/Deo.

The Tataryns live their lives according to Esther 14:4, believing that God has placed them where they are "for such a time as this", and they seek to be used by Him and to honour Him with their lives.

PAA Alumnus of the Year
Ken Trefz

Ken Trefz was born in Hanna, Alberta. He started his education in Mt. Vernon, Ohio. Later he attended high school at what was then known as Canadian Union College from 1949 until 1954 and then attended school on the hilltop again in 1957-58.

In 1963, Ken graduated from Walla Walla College. He taught in denominational schools for 9 years, 6 of these in senior academies teaching Biology and Chemistry.

Wanting to expand his horizons, Ken continued his education by attending Loma Linda School of Dentistry and graduating in 1976. He was in private practice and worked on Native Reserves in Alberta for 11 years; then went to the Saipan Adventist Clinic in the Northern Mariana Islands, where he served as Clinic Director for two years.

This was followed by short term locums in Alberta and overseas. Ken travelled outside of North America fourteen times to perform dentistry in Kenya, Madagascar, Nepal (twice), Palau, Nicaragua (twice), Malawi, Mexico, St. Vincent, Guatemala, Brazil and Peru (twice). He also worked for the Canadian government north of the 60th parallel in 13 communities, from the northern tip of Baffin Island to Fort Laird in the Northwest Territories.

With a passion for service, Ken has been involved with 26 Maranatha projects, 6 of which were located outside of North America. He has worked 19 times at summer camps; at the Walla Walla Biology Station in the US; and also once in Canada.

Presently, Ken keeps his passion of service alive with his involvement in purchasing sewing machines for new immigrants to Kelowna. Hobbies keep Ken busy as well and include carving soapstone, producing mosaic glass works, photography and travel – the latter resulting in visits to 30 plus countries on all continents except Antarctica (and it is on his bucket list!).

Ken shares a story regarding his varied dental career. He was 37 when he applied to Loma Linda School of Dentistry. He says he really did not expect to be accepted, as he had heard that Loma Linda preferred students under the age of 27. However, he prayed to God that if He would help him to be accepted, he would go wherever God opened a door for him to go. After graduating, opportunities materialized with even greater frequency than he had anticipated. Not wanting to have to explain to his Maker why he had not lived up to his promise, he went whenever possible, plus says Ken, “I love adventure.”

Ken has 4 children, 7 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren. Ken and his wife, Ruth reside in Westbank, BC.

Honorary Alumnus of the Year
Wendolin Pazitka-Munroe

Wendolin Pazitka-Munroe is Professor of Vocal/Choral Music at Burman University. She holds a Bachelor of Music Education Degree in Voice and Organ from Andrews University, a Master of Music Degree in Choral Conducting with distinction and a Doctorate in Choral/Vocal Music Education from Indiana University, Bloomington. Currently, Dr. Munroe conducts the Burman University/PAA Choral Union, the Burman University Chamber Singers, teaches voice, music education courses, and conducting. Supplementing her many duties at Burman, she has spent the past 12 seasons voluntarily conducting the Parkland Classical Singers, a community choir from Lacombe, Alberta.

Her choirs have toured and performed across Canada and the United States, Europe, China and Brazil. They have participated in five Carnegie Hall projects, two of which were solo choral performances. With over 100 members, the choir performs a wide variety of music from Symphonic Literature, Cantatas and Oratorios to sacred Classical Repertoire, Spirituals, Broadway Musicals, and Opera. Dr. Munroe's choirs are award-winning, having placed first and second in Alberta provincial-level competitions and represented Alberta in the CBC Radio national competition.

Dr. Munroe began vocal studies at the age of 16 with Ralph Coupland in her home town of Oshawa, Ontario. In 1969-70 she studied voice in London, England with Joy Mammen, noted opera singer and vocal lecturer at the Royal College of Music. While in England, Dr. Munroe was a regular performer at local coffee houses and at the New Gallery in London. She won several vocal competitions and obtained her “Grade 8 Higher” diploma in singing from Trinity College of Music in Oxford. She then went to the United States where she studied with Rudolf Strukoff. She later continued vocal studies with New York City Opera singers, Vera Scammon and Jean Deis at Indiana University in Bloomington.

Dr. Munroe is a Coloratura Soprano, and specializes in oratorio and sacred vocal music. Over the years, she has been soprano soloist in such works as: Handel's Messiah; Vivaldi's Gloria; Schubert's Mass in C Major; William's Passion According to St. Mark, to name a few. She has won numerous vocal competitions including the coveted Batten Silver Tray. She has been a featured soloist with the Kingsway Symphonic Choir, the Oshawa Symphony, the Newbold Collegium Musicum, the Andrews University Singers, the Indiana University Singers, and the New England Youth Ensemble.

Dr. Munroe loves teaching voice and her students have been very successful winning vocal competitions at the local, provincial and national levels of competition. Many have gone on to graduate school, are voice instructors, recording artists, and have successful careers in opera, oratorio and musical theatre. Dr. Munroe has been on the faculty of Burman University since September, 1977.

*Innovator Award
Darwyn Bartsch*

Darwyn Bartsch is a Licensed Doctor of Physical Therapy with over 25 years of experience in a variety of clinical settings. His focus has been in pediatrics for more than 20 years with an emphasis on the physiology of development and movement in relation to functional skills. Dr. Bartsch completed his Bachelor of Arts in Humanities through Canadian Union College, a Master of Science in Physical Therapy from Andrews University, and earned his Doctor of Physical Therapy degree through Arizona School of Health Sciences. With a history of sport acrobatics, anatomy and physiology, and a unique approach to analysis of motion and mechanics, he has helped pediatric and adult clients achieve effective and faster functional outcomes. The desire for better results led him to: develop a series of online instructional materials for therapists and families, patent The EmBrace®, an invention for strengthening the respiratory muscles, and publish a handbook regarding children's movement and learning concepts.

Dr. Bartsch has been presenting seminars and conferences for therapists and developmental specialists across the United States for more than 10 years. He is the recipient of the 2018 Outstanding Service Provider of the Year Award from Sharing Down Syndrome Arizona. He is the founder and president of Excel in Health Physical Therapy, and Upper Core Technologies.

*Pioneer Award
John and Alberta Blake*

John and Alberta Blake have pioneered ministering for the deaf through various Committees, Conferences and Divisions and by working with various groups in North America and abroad. They started their work in Deaf Ministries when their three-year old daughter lost her hearing as a result of a very high fever.

The newly formed Canadian Compassion Committee's purpose is to help all church departments and entities to better meet the special needs of the church and community. John Blake and Esther Doss, the NAD Deaf Ministry Director have met with this Compassion Committee twice: once on the Burman University campus and once in Halifax. It is the hope of all involved that the new emphasis at the Union Conference level will bring overall help to Deaf Ministries in Canada and North America.

Through affiliates worldwide, the Blake's have made it their life-long mission to advance deaf ministries in Canada, North America and the world.

*Featured Weekend

FRIDAY EVENING VESPERS - KEVIN WELCH

Kevin Welch, who calls himself a “serial entrepreneur,” founded Integra in 1997, providing pharmacy solutions to the long-term care community. Since 2017, he has been the chief technology officer at JM Smith Corporation and a key player in creating technology standards throughout the years. He has also applied his skills at companies such as Genetec, Microsoft and Symantec.

CHURCH SERVICE - KENNETH CRAWFORD

Kenneth Crawford was president of the Alaska Conference of Seventh-day Adventists from 2004 to 2016, living in the Arctic for many years and writing a number of children's books about Arctic nature while serving the church.

Stephanie Hall, a Burman alumna, worked at Swingle Clinic in Vancouver, BC before completing a Master of Arts in counselling psychology at Trinity Western University. She uses neurobiological and trauma therapies in her counselling practice.

Library Transformation

Enhanced Opportunities to Learn, Connect, and Belong

Imagine how a transformed library will help students and faculty shape their lives.

Proposed renovated library and learning commons.

► $5 Million: Library Transformation

Avibrant library is the cornerstone of educational institutions and communities, a key gathering and learning space.

The existing library was originally built in 1950 to serve as a cafeteria and college store. In 1964, it was repurposed for a library; however, it has never been ideally updated as a place for academic growth.

Yesterday's facilities won't adequately serve students for tomorrow. Renovations are needed to transform the campus library into an even more relevant place to work, live, and learn.

A modernized facility will offer students the best in print and digital resources, feature quiet places, and provide meeting rooms and collaborative learning spaces. The transformed library will be a place where students and the community meet to interact intellectually and socially.
