

EDFO 219 – AI Literacy for Educators

This course will build AI literacy in K–12 educators, supporting informed, ethical classroom pedagogical use. The examination includes what artificial intelligence is and is not, as well as issues such as bias, data privacy, academic integrity, and educators' responsibilities during planning, assessment, and student feedback.