

The Student's Financial Responsibilities

- The student is solely responsible for being aware of the financial requirements regarding attendance at the University.
- The student is solely responsible for reviewing the charges and credits and ensuring the student account is up-to-date.
- The student is solely responsible to pass on any changes that are made to Spending Plan to others who are making payments on the account.
- The student is solely responsible for contacting Student Financial Services to update the Spending Plan with any changes in course loads or housing.
- The student is solely responsible for identifying in the general registration process to whom his/her personal financial information may be released. Our office personnel can only discuss the student account with the student plus the identified people.
