

PUBLIC DISPLAY OF AFFECTION POLICY

Effective Date: 1 September 2014

Responsibility: Vice President Student Services

Amends Policy dated:

Policy Number:

Scope: Students

When determining how to publically display affection members of the campus community should choose behaviours that are fully in harmony with the historical and cultural traditions of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and the following biblical principles: living self-controlled, upright, and godly lives; renouncing sexual immorality and impurity; protecting your reputation; and, not needlessly offending those who observe your behaviour.

Please refer to the official SDA Church statements concerning this topic at <http://www.adventist.org/information/official-statements/>