

Code of Conduct for Burman University Students

As members of a Christian university community, students will want to live in harmony with Biblical principles. Students are to be honest in all things, avoiding suspicion by not misusing keys or entering or exiting buildings through other than normal exits. Students should not violate federal, provincial or civil criminal codes by doing such things as stealing or using or possessing non-prescribed drugs. Because the university upholds the belief that whatever we eat, drink or do should bring glory to God (1 Corinthians 10:31), students will avoid using, possessing or furnishing to others, tobacco products, illegal or prescription drugs for misuse, all alcoholic beverages, or pornographic and occultic materials. Paul, in Romans 12:2, encourages us to be different from the world. This, along with his statement in Philippians 4:8, directs us to focus on the true, the honourable and whatever is right and pure. 1 Corinthians 6:9-10 clearly counsels the avoidance of sexual promiscuity and perversion. As Christians, we know we are not our own but bought with a price (1 Corinthians 6:19). Students will therefore want to glorify God through their lifestyle. Students who become involved in any of the aforementioned inappropriate activities may be counseled, disciplined or separated from the university for a time. Illegal activities will be reported to local authorities. Action may be taken by Dean's Council, Discipline Committee or by an appropriate administrator. Remembering these basic guidelines will make time spent at Burman University safe, fun and memorable. Further details concerning expectations can be found online in the Student Handbook at:
